

2007 DESIGN EXCELLENCE AWARD

Saybrook Country Barn – 2 Main Street
New Construction

OLD SAYBROOK ARCHITECTURAL REVIEW BOARD

Project Name: Saybrook Country Barn II
Project Type: Commercial New Construction
Location: 2 Main Street
Designers: Keith Bolles & Ron D'Aurelio
Owner: Keith Bolles
Architect: Ron D'Aurelio

The Board chose this project for its significant presence to the key intersection of Main Street and the Boston Post Road. The Saybrook Country Barn has created an impressive and welcoming entryway into Old Saybrook. The use of high quality design, workmanship, materials, signage and a range of colors reduces mass resulting in a wonderful series of interconnected appropriately scaled buildings that are respectful of Town guidelines. The building's style presents a timeless sense of place and identity that captures the spirit of Old Saybrook. The windows provide a flavor of what is inside in a subtle and understated way. Detailed attention to parking and landscaping engages and invites viewers from the street into the spaces.